The Sixth Annual Distinguished Alumni Lecture

Generational Feminism(s) among Older Mexican Women and Chicanas

Dr. Elisa Facio
University of Colorado at Boulder
Department of Ethnic Studies

Dr. Facio's talk addresses the conceptual construction of generational feminism(s) and contributes to concerted, yet diverse feminist knowledge(s) among and between generations of women who identify as Mexican and/or Chicana.

This research moves beyond descriptive generational comparisons by exploring how factors of age, aging, and generation speak to generational differences in feminist thought and activism.
