Director of Campus Ethics Programs, Markkula Center for Applied Ethics, Santa Clara University. 2002-present.

- Since 2002 managed more than 150 public events on a wide variety of topics in ethics including business ethics, engineering ethics, environmental ethics, science and ethics, medical ethics, government ethics, immigration and ethics, ethics of war and peace, theological ethics, academic integrity, and more.

- Since 2002 managed major lecture series for campus and community. Among speakers brought to campus have been Cardinal Oscar Rodriguez Maradiaga; moral historian John Noonan; theological ethicist Karen Lebacqz; philosopher of science Francisco Ayala; theological ethicist Margaret Farley; and writer Richard Rodriguez.
- In November 2015, chaired faculty-staff organizing committee of major SCU conference on Pope Francis' environmental encyclical Laudato Si. Speakers included Cardinal Peter Turkson, President of the Pontifical Council of Justice and Peace; San Jose Mayor Sam Liccardo; Stanford biologist Gretchen Daily; and Scripps climate scientist Veerabhadran Ramanathan. Oversaw all aspects of the conference, from contacting speakers to generating audience to being on-stage in dialogue with speakers to managing the two-day event itself. Video of the conference available at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CiN9Vw2R7dU&index=35&list=PLAoWqffhN27DTkUM6MbjgFflJayXuMFla>
- Managed for 11 years faculty and student research grant program that dispersed $30,000 in grant money annually. Met with grant applicants to refine proposals.
- Since 2002 managed and mentored student ethics fellowships programs. Student fellowship projects have included developing cases now posted online in communication ethics, business ethics, and engineering ethics; creating a blog on technology and ethics; developing a website/database on student government ethics; and creating an online SCU-specific carbon footprint calculator, among other projects. Two mentored undergraduate fellows became Rhodes Scholars
