

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MAJOR IN PHILOSOPHY (14 CLASSES TOTAL)

Students majoring in philosophy must complete all the courses in Introductions and in Inquiries. Every student must also complete four additional upper division (100-level) elective courses.

Students who wish to graduate with a specific emphasis (or emphases) must select four upper division courses listed within that emphasis. Inquiries courses may count toward an emphasis.

INTRODUCTIONS (6 CLASSES)

- ___ History of Western Philosophy (3 classes)
 - Ancient and Medieval—Phil 14
 - Early Modern—Phil 15
 - Modern—Phil 16
- ___ Logic (informal or formal)—Phil 17 or 18
- ___ Knowledge and Reality—Phil 19 (fulfills Advanced Writing Core Requirement)
- ___ One course from: Phil 40-44 (requirement waived if Phil 1A and 2A, or Phil 11A and 12A completed)

INQUIRIES (4 CLASSES)

- ___ History of Philosophy
Choose one course from Phil 124-127, 141A-151, 175-181A
- ___ Non-Western Philosophy (fulfills C&I 3 requirement)
Choose one course from Phil 175 - 180
- ___ Ethical Theory
Choose one course from Phil 109-112, 120-128, 152, 154, 159
- ___ Metaphysics and Epistemology
Choose one course from Phil 150-165

FOUR UPPER DIVISION (100-LEVEL) ELECTIVES

Phil _____
Phil _____
Phil _____
Phil _____

AVAILABLE EMPHASES

- Pre-Law & Justice emphasis (P)
 - Science & Analysis emphasis (S)
 - History of Ideas emphasis (H)
 - Ethics & Values emphasis (E)
- To graduate with an emphasis, 4 of the 8 required upper division courses (Inquiries + Electives) must be within one specific emphasis. Students may graduate with more than one emphasis.
- To see which emphasis/emphases an upper division course is associated with, please consult the Philosophy Courses handout, the Department of Philosophy website, or the Undergraduate Bulletin.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MINOR IN PHILOSOPHY (7 CLASSES TOTAL)

The minor in philosophy requires 7 courses in philosophy. Required courses include logic, two history of philosophy courses, and four upper division (100-level) electives.

Students who wish to graduate with a specific emphasis (or emphases) must select four upper division courses listed within that emphasis. Students may graduate with more than one emphasis.

___ Logic (formal or informal)—Phil 17 or 18

___ History of Western Philosophy (2 classes)

- Ancient and Medieval—Phil 14
- Early Modern—Phil 15

___ Four Upper Division (100-level) Electives

Phil _____

Phil _____

Phil _____

Phil _____

AVAILABLE EMPHASES

- Pre-Law & Justice emphasis
- Science & Analysis emphasis
- History of Ideas emphasis
- Ethics & Values emphasis

-- To graduate with an emphasis, four upper division (100-level) courses must be within one specific emphasis. Students may graduate with more than one emphasis.

-- To see which emphasis/emphases an upper division course is associated with, please consult the Philosophy Courses handout, the Department of Philosophy website, or the Undergraduate Bulletin.