FERPA - Family Education Rights and Privacy Act

Unless the Student completes the FERPA Release

- ❖ The University cannot provide information on a student's account or academic progress to any third party, even parents paying the bill.
- ❖ If a student would like the University to be able to discuss financial matters and student records with a third party (like parents), the student needs to complete the FERPA Release form. This release may be submitted at any time during the year.
