What does 'a good job' mean to you?

- What are your student's skills, strengths, interests?
- What are your expectations? What are theirs?
 - E.g., Financial, social, opportunities for growth, values-alignment
- How and where does your student want to contribute?
 - What causes animate them? What will give them purpose?

Not for on campus jobs!

The screenshot displays the Indeed job search page. At the top, there's a search bar with the Indeed logo and a search icon. Below the search bar, the 'Job Search' tab is selected. The search criteria are set to 'Job titles, employers, or keywords' and 'City, State, Zip Code, or Address'. A list of related keywords is shown: anthropology, research assistant, museum, health, public health, human resources, summer internship, assistant, marketing, and social media. The filters are set to 'Full-Time Job', 'Part-Time', 'Internship', and 'On-Campus'. The 'Filter' button is highlighted. The search results show 1-25 of 4,154 jobs. The first job listing is 'Orphan Care Data Analysis and...' by Christian Alliance for Orphans, a remote unpaid part-time internship in Raleigh, NC. The second job listing is 'Environmental Business, Inc.' by Seaside Sustainability, Inc., a remote job in Rockport, MA. On the right side, there's a section for 'Team Leader - Summer Intern' by REACH in Roanoke, a full-time internship from 5/27/20 to 8/5/20 in Roanoke, VA. It mentions that applications close on April 15th, 2020 at 2:15 pm. Below this, it states 'You match all of REACH in Roanoke's preferences' and lists four criteria: Major, GPA, School Year, and U.S. Work Authorization, all of which are checked. At the bottom, it notes 'Employer accepts OPT/CPT.'
