

Here are the questions you will be asked on the Hackworth Grant Application Google Form:

1. Please say whether and when you received one or more previous Hackworth Grants (applications submitted within 12 months of a previously awarded grant, or when a previous grant remains open, are ineligible).
2. Please list other Santa Clara University grants received or pending.
3. Title of Project
4. Amount Requested
5. Please attach a description of the project - 750 words maximum.
6. Submit an itemized budget with justification for each item. Please rank the items in your budget in order of importance, as we may only be able to partially fund your project. Note that we only fund travel to conferences for papers/panels/presentations/etc. (not mere attendance) and only if the conference has already accepted the work. Additionally, we cannot provide funds for research survey participation using cash or gift cards. If you are planning on having a research assistant please specify in detail their hours, rate, and specific tasks they will be responsible for. See example budget on our website.
7. Please attach a Curriculum Vitae.
8. Confidentiality Question – please choose one of the following (all grant applications are kept confidential except when announced in the public grant announcement):
 - I DO NOT have confidentiality concerns and someone else may write the public grant summary (this will likely be based on your “Grant Summary” answers below).
 - I DO have confidentiality concerns and I will write the public grant summary (this will consist of the “Grant Summary” answers below).
9. For a general audience, please explain in one sentence the topic and purpose of your grant. Please emphasize the ethical aspect of your project. This sentence will form part of the public abstract that will be posted online if your grant is accepted.
10. For a general audience, please explain in one sentence what the money for your grant will be used to pay for or to accomplish. This sentence will form part of the public abstract that will be posted online if your grant is accepted.
