

Off Campus Living Neighborhood Ambassador Position Description 2025-2026

Neighborhood Ambassadors are student peer leaders who work as part of the Off-Campus Student Life team under the direction of the Off-Campus Area Coordinator. The Neighborhood Ambassador position has been designed to support community development and to serve as a liaison between students living off-campus and the University. Neighborhood Ambassadors contribute to the development of the off-campus community by assisting with the personal development of off-campus residents, encouraging responsibility, student safety, and promoting an inclusive environment where diverse perspectives are welcomed and respected. In addition, Neighborhood Ambassadors provide an essential communication link between students and the University. Neighborhood Ambassadors are expected to embody University policies and community standards and encourage responsible citizenship by exemplifying these values.

The following document describes the job responsibilities, qualifications for application, selection, conditions of employment, and compensation for the Neighborhood Ambassador position.

Job Responsibilities

A. Leadership

1. Serve as a role model for responsible behavior, personal integrity, maturity, and commitment to Jesuit philosophy of education of the whole person, both on-campus and off-campus.
2. Exercise good judgment and ethical decision-making, both on and off-campus.
3. Facilitate a positive environment where residents are held accountable in a manner that fosters respect and dignity for all involved.
4. Act as a liaison between students, City of Santa Clara residents, the University, and City of Santa Clara officials.
5. Be knowledgeable about University policies, including those outlined in the Student Handbook, and encourage responsible citizenship through adherence to these standards.
6. Provide peer education and build community through day-to-day contact with students.

B. Community Development

1. Provide referrals to on-campus resources for students with academic, personal, social, and financial concerns and report referrals to their supervisor.
2. Promote an understanding of responsible neighborhood living that respects the rights of others and supports students' social and academic goals.
3. Participate in setting objectives in relation to student needs and plan and implement specific opportunities (educational, social, recreational, religious, or cultural) related to student interests or needs.
4. Foster community through the intentional usage of appropriate programmatic initiatives.
5. Provide mediation for off-campus housing disputes, with a focus on fostering positive academic and personal outcomes for students.

C. Integrated Education

1. Collaborate with the Off-Campus Area Coordinator and fellow Neighborhood Ambassadors to develop co-curricular programs that meet the needs of upper-class residents and enhance their community engagement.
2. Refer students to campus events, service opportunities, and other resources.
3. Promote activities and resources that enhance academic success.
