

REQUEST FOR PROVOST EXCEPTION

to use a prior version of the Discipline-specific Scholarship Standards

Your department's current discipline-specific scholarship standards govern tenure and promotion cases if approved by April 1 of the calendar year of your petition. They govern annual faculty evaluation and MPR if approved by September 1 of the academic year of these reviews. The current standards, listed by approval date, are available on the Provost's website.

Use this form if you would like to seek approval from the Provost to use an immediately prior version of your department's standards.

DISCIPLINE-SPECIFIC SCHOLARSHIP STANDARDS

Please indicate the approval date of the current discipline-specific scholarship standards for your department.

Please indicate the approval date of the prior discipline-specific scholarship standards that you prefer reviewers use to evaluate your materials.

Please provide the reasons you are requesting an exception (for example, a probationary faculty member might request an exception to use the standards shared at the time of their job interview/hire). Include specific changes in the current standards that you believe should not apply to your review.
